1. In Budapest-Ferencváros, Székesfehérvár, and Kaposvár the underground shelters for railroad personnel had been completed. They are two stories high and will be properly finished off and equipped to accommodate the entire traffic and signal personnel in these stations. They have been fitted with radio transmitters and receivers.

2. The construction office of the Budapest subway has been ordered to work out and submit plans to convert the tunnels which have been completed into air-raid shelters.

- 25X1 3. At 3 p.m. on 6 October 1953 there was a big air-raid precaution exercise in the Institute for Physical Culture, Alkotás Utca, Budapest XII, to which the heads of the ARP organizations, both municipal and provincial, were invited. Preparations for this practice preceded it for weeks
